PLAINVILLE CAMP MEETING

THE MEETING OPENED UNDER FAVORABLE AUSPICES.

An Unusually Large Gathering—The Daily Program—Many New Buildings—Society Houses Dedicated—Fine Music—A Plan of the Grounds.

Plainville, July 30.—The camp meeting at Plainville opened yesterday morning, the weather and everything combining to make a pleasant beginning. The grove is in a fine condition, and everything about the grounds is fresh and bright.

An unusually large number of persons spent Sunday on the grounds, and many owners of private cottages have been there for an outing for several weeks. A number of new society houses are being built, and these can be best seen from the preacher's stand. Directly in the rear is the new corporation house containing thirty rooms for the accommodation of the preachers. The secretary's office is also in this building with commodious quarters.

At the right of the stand and a little to the rear is the new house of the South Park church, Hartford, located upon one of the most desirable lots in the inner circle. It is a pretty two storied building with the body painted a dark yellow, chocolate trimmings and red sashes. From its upper and lower verandahs there is an excellent view of the entire inner circle and auditorium. The ground plan dimensions are 22x30 feet. On the first floor is a large assembly room which may be thrown wide open by means of sliding doors. The second story is divided into eight separate rooms each of which is furnished to accommodate eight persons. The cottage has been newly furnished and represents a total cost of about $800.

At 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon the building was formally dedicated. Rev. W. A. Richards, pastor of the church, was in charge of the exercises, and a large number of Hartford people were in attendance. The scripture lesson was read by Rev. W. A. Richards. After prayers by Rev. B. F. Kidder of Shelton and F. W. Hannon of Meriden short addresses were made by Mr. and Mrs. C. F. McGee and Gordon C. Wells of Hartford and Mrs. Sharp from Ocean Grove.

Directly in front of the preachers' stand is the cheerful house built by the Woodbury society. At the right of this is the new home of the Grace church people of New Haven. This house has the best finish and most complete fixings of any society buildings on the grounds. To the left stand the two new houses of Middletown and Forestville. On the outer circle the Higginum society has built a much larger cottage than their old one.

New cottages have been built in Plainville avenue by Rev. Mr. Hagarty of Plainville and Mr. Furrey on Hartford avenue by Rev. A. A. Clark, on Meriden avenue by Mr. T. J. Peck, on New Haven avenue by Mr. Perry of Southbury, on Bristol avenue by Mr. Manchester of Plainville and Mrs. Hull of New Britain, and Mr. Davis of Southbury. In addition to these more than twice the usual number of tents have been put up for private use this year.

The following is the daily program of the meeting:
 Breakfast at 7 a. m., family worship at 8, tent meetings at 8:30, preaching at 10, dinner at 12, children's hour at 1:30 p. m., preaching at 2:30, supper at 5:30, young people's meeting at 6:30, tent meetings at 6:30, preaching at 7:30, retiring bell at 10.

The first regular meeting of the encampment was a praise and prayer service in front of the stand at 2:30 Monday. Presiding Elder North, who has been on the grounds since early Saturday morning, was obliged to be absent the latter part of the day, and Rev. F. P. Tower of East Berlin conducted the meeting.

In the evening Rev. H. L. Glover of Durham preached an interesting sermon on "The Bearing and Importance of Expectancy in Securing Divine Blessing," the theme being drawn from Acts 3:15.

At 1 o'clock Monday afternoon the First M. E. church of Meriden dedicated its new society chapel. Rev. F. W. Hannon, pastor of the church, conducted the dedicatory services and Dr. P. A. of that city delivered the address. The regular church choir and quartet was in attendance, and the music was a special feature of the exercises.

To-day at 10 a. m. Rev. F. P. Tower of East Berlin preached, and at 2:30 p. m. Rev. John Reppere of Torrington.

At to-morrow (Wednesday) morning's service Rev. W. H. Barton of Birmingham will preach and at 7:30 this evening Rev. C. E. Barton of Seymour.

For half an hour before every preaching service there is a service of song by the chorus under the direction of Prof. Harvey of Hartford.

Hitherto there has always been some difficulty in finding lodgings for transients, as many wish to remain on the grounds over night. This year the large number of commodious society houses, most of which have room to spare, will obviate this difficulty and lodgings may be readily obtained.

The boarding house is in charge of Mr. Lounsbury, an experienced caterer from Bristol, and meals can be obtained there at reasonable prices.

An idea of the plans of the grounds may be gained from the following, in which the situation of the various buildings is shown:

Prices And Forethought

The prices of foreign wool have advanced. "The biggest rise in 20 years," so say the trade journals. Six months ago, when goods were the lowest of the low, we placed our orders in France, Germany and England—also here. Goods will arrive early in September. The advance samples are here now—have been for weeks. If you wish, select your fall suiting and when the goods come in we'll send it right along—not at the new price, however, but at the old rate. Here's where you get the benefit of our forethought. You see we do business in a large way—consequently we get large results. No petty transaction or two by six sort of deal is recognized by us.

We Have

a perfect passion for talking about our little five dollar friend. Every time we go by him in the store he seems to wink his sharp little eye and say: "Tell them about me. I'm only a little chap—but what work I can do with assistance from old friend Sol." We don't blame the little Pocket Kodak for being proud of himself. If you can't have five dollars worth of fun with him, you can't with anything. Give him a chance and he will brighten your life and your home in a twinkling. Almost vest pocket size.
